

About the 25 Days of Paper 2015:

'Twas a great time to celebrate paper, and I'm delighted to have shared my ideas for using this amazing material with you. Throughout December 2015, I posted a paper tutorial on even days, and every odd day brought news about paper artists, stores, distributors and more!

Thank you to those of you who purchased the Custom Paper Pack and followed along as well as those of you who participated with your own papers. Check out the facebook group where we shared our creations:
